

Krishna Janmashtami Pooja

Janmashtami

Janmashtami celebrates the birth of Lord Krishna. Krishna's birth on Ashtami signifies his mastery of both the spiritual and material worlds.

Janmashtami

The unique quality of Krishna is that he is at once more pious than the saints and yet a thorough mischief-monger! His behaviour is a perfect balance of the extremes — perhaps this is why the personality of Krishna is so difficult to fathom.

Janmashtami

The avdhoot is oblivious to the world outside and a materialistic person, a politician or a king is oblivious to the spiritual world. But Krishna is both Dwarkadheesh and Yogeshwar.

Janmashtami

Krishna teaches us devotion with skill. To celebrate Gokulashtami is to imbibe extremely opposite yet compatible qualities and manifest them in your own life.

Janmashtami

We have to play a dual role — of being a responsible human being on the planet and at the same time to realize that you are above all events, the untouched Brahman.

Imbibing a bit of avadhoot and a bit of activism in our life is the real significance of celebrating Janmashtami.
